

STOP THE GREED> In our country it is not fair to penilize people with great ideas by legislating them for others greed. America is about competition. Radio stations offer little variety and commercial after commercial. XM offers a incredible service for a low price. Good for them. If radio stations want to compete fairly for the business by offering a better product let them. But do not legislate against xm!